The official newsletter of The Renaissance School of Dance

Welcome back to the dance floor for 2022! Understandably it's been a bit quiet in the studio for the last week or so, given the current situation. Sending big RSD love to those families at home, we are wishing you all the best for your speedy recovery. For those that have been able to attend classes, it's been such a joy to be able to spread our love of dance and see you all smiling! :D
